ERASMUS+ EXPERIENCE AT CASA COLLEGE

Between the 5th and 9th of June, two lecturers from South-West University, Neofit Rilski (Bulgaria) came to our college as part of the Erasmus+ Programme. Mrs. Kostadinova Dafina and Mrs. Sakareva Ivanka engaged in constructive discussions with our academic team regarding learning process and other academic procedures implemented at Casa College, thereby returning to their university with ground breaking concepts. From the 12th to 19th of June, Mrs. Vessela Panova from Varna University of Management (Bulgaria) has been at our college exchanging knowledge with the administrative staff for administrative processes and procedures.

WORLD CHOCOLATE DAY JULY 7TH

Every year on July 7th, World Chocolate Day allows everyone who loves the chocolate around the world to indulge in their favorite treat without any guilt. The day also celebrates all kinds of delicacies like chocolate milk, hot chocolate, chocolate candy bars, chocolate cakes, brownies and other chocolate - covered treats. Chocolate originates from the tropical Theobroma cacao tree seed, cultivated for over three thousand years across Mexico, Central America, and Northern South America. Earliest records of cacao seed usage date back to approximately 1100 BC.

INTERNATIONAL FRIENDSHIP DAY JULY 30TH

The United Nations General Assembly (U.N.) has designated the International Day of Friendship, which serves as an opportunity to express gratitude for global relationships that foster and endorse peace, happiness, and unity. In line with this commemoration, the U.N. encourages governments, community groups, and various organizations to collaborate in organizing activities and events that honor and celebrate the cherished friendships we hold dear.

VISIT FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTHAMPTON

On the 14th and 15th of June, Casa College had the privilege of hosting a visit from esteemed professionals in the academic field, Mrs. Julia James, the Academic Partnership Development Manager, and Mrs. Maggie Anderson, the Academic Programme Manager from the Faculty of Business and Law at the University of Northampton in the United Kingdom. During their visit, they conducted a series of training sessions outlined for both the academic and administrative staff of our college. The training encompassed a wide range of topics, including UoN policies and procedures, library services, admissions training, and guidance on effectively utilizing the NILE platform. With this valuable collaboration, Casa College eagerly anticipates the unfolding of future prospects and advancements, as it embarks on a transformative journey through this partnership.
